

The History of Ewyas Lacy: Golden Valley Railway

Document Record

Held at: Private collection

Reference: LD_rs_0006

Source: Original document

Title: Digital Images Collection: Photograph of press cutting re the Golden Valley Railway

Place name: Golden Valley

Date: 1875

Description:

Photograph of a reprint from the Hereford Times of 6th November 1875 reporting on a public meeting at the Green Dragon hotel in Hereford to promote the proposed Golden Valley railway from Pontrilas to Dorstone. There is reference to Charles Guy Trafford, who was present, and to Miss Elizabeth Rawson.

Digital Images Collection: Photograph of press cutting re the Golden Valley Railway

The History of Ewyas Lacy: Golden Valley Railway

Railway Document Record

PROPOSED GOLDEN VALLEY RAILWAY

(REPRINTED FROM THE "HEREFORD TIMES," SATURDAY, NOVEMBER 6th, 1875.)

On Wednesday a highly successful and influential public meeting to promote the railway through that fertile tract of Herefordshire, known as the Golden Valley was convened at the Green Dragon Hotel, Hereford. The Rev. Thomas Powell, of Donnington, was voted to the chair, and there were also present—The Rev. T. Cromer Powell, the Rev. C. J. Bagley, the Rev. Mr. Sawyer (Woolston), Mr. James Green Price, Mr. G. H. Robinson, Mr. H. H. Wood, Mr. L. Robinson, Mr. Charles Langford, of Parliament Street, London, Mr. W. H. Apperley, Mr. J. F. Symonds, Mr. Froehlich, Hereford, Mr. C. G. Bradford, Mr. Trudford, John, Mr. H. Hayward (Bucknort), Mr. Williams, Mansel-Pennant, Mr. C. E. Lane (hon. sec.), Mr. James Martin (Hilshambury), Mr. James (Hilshambury), Mr. James Powell (Hilsham), Mr. Joseph Matthews, Mr. Moxson (Widmore), Mr. Lewis (Grove), Mr. W. J. J. Smith, Mr. Sharkey, Mr. T. Howard (Hilsham), Mr. Thomas Mellist (Mowbold), Mr. James Madocks (Wentworth), Mr. Arthur Jones (Wentworth), Mr. T. Apperley, Mr. Wm. Davies (Wentworth), &c.

The Chairman said the meeting had the privilege of reading the report of the committee of the late meeting, which would be read in full, and he would be glad to take into consideration the views of the meeting, which would be extremely helpful to him. He would be glad to see the views of the meeting, which would be extremely helpful to him. He would be glad to see the views of the meeting, which would be extremely helpful to him.

On Wednesday a highly successful and influential public meeting to promote the railway through that fertile tract of Herefordshire, known as the Golden Valley was convened at the Green Dragon Hotel, Hereford. The Rev. Thomas Powell, of Donnington, was voted to the chair, and there were also present—The Rev. T. Cromer Powell, the Rev. C. J. Bagley, the Rev. Mr. Sawyer (Woolston), Mr. James Green Price, Mr. G. H. Robinson, Mr. H. H. Wood, Mr. L. Robinson, Mr. Charles Langford, of Parliament Street, London, Mr. W. H. Apperley, Mr. J. F. Symonds, Mr. Froehlich, Hereford, Mr. C. G. Bradford, Mr. Trudford, John, Mr. H. Hayward (Bucknort), Mr. Williams, Mansel-Pennant, Mr. C. E. Lane (hon. sec.), Mr. James Martin (Hilshambury), Mr. James (Hilshambury), Mr. James Powell (Hilsham), Mr. Joseph Matthews, Mr. Moxson (Widmore), Mr. Lewis (Grove), Mr. W. J. J. Smith, Mr. Sharkey, Mr. T. Howard (Hilsham), Mr. Thomas Mellist (Mowbold), Mr. James Madocks (Wentworth), Mr. Arthur Jones (Wentworth), Mr. T. Apperley, Mr. Wm. Davies (Wentworth), &c.

The Chairman said the meeting had the privilege of reading the report of the committee of the late meeting, which would be read in full, and he would be glad to take into consideration the views of the meeting, which would be extremely helpful to him. He would be glad to see the views of the meeting, which would be extremely helpful to him. He would be glad to see the views of the meeting, which would be extremely helpful to him.

On Wednesday a highly successful and influential public meeting to promote the railway through that fertile tract of Herefordshire, known as the Golden Valley was convened at the Green Dragon Hotel, Hereford. The Rev. Thomas Powell, of Donnington, was voted to the chair, and there were also present—The Rev. T. Cromer Powell, the Rev. C. J. Bagley, the Rev. Mr. Sawyer (Woolston), Mr. James Green Price, Mr. G. H. Robinson, Mr. H. H. Wood, Mr. L. Robinson, Mr. Charles Langford, of Parliament Street, London, Mr. W. H. Apperley, Mr. J. F. Symonds, Mr. Froehlich, Hereford, Mr. C. G. Bradford, Mr. Trudford, John, Mr. H. Hayward (Bucknort), Mr. Williams, Mansel-Pennant, Mr. C. E. Lane (hon. sec.), Mr. James Martin (Hilshambury), Mr. James (Hilshambury), Mr. James Powell (Hilsham), Mr. Joseph Matthews, Mr. Moxson (Widmore), Mr. Lewis (Grove), Mr. W. J. J. Smith, Mr. Sharkey, Mr. T. Howard (Hilsham), Mr. Thomas Mellist (Mowbold), Mr. James Madocks (Wentworth), Mr. Arthur Jones (Wentworth), Mr. T. Apperley, Mr. Wm. Davies (Wentworth), &c.

The Chairman said the meeting had the privilege of reading the report of the committee of the late meeting, which would be read in full, and he would be glad to take into consideration the views of the meeting, which would be extremely helpful to him. He would be glad to see the views of the meeting, which would be extremely helpful to him. He would be glad to see the views of the meeting, which would be extremely helpful to him.

On Wednesday a highly successful and influential public meeting to promote the railway through that fertile tract of Herefordshire, known as the Golden Valley was convened at the Green Dragon Hotel, Hereford. The Rev. Thomas Powell, of Donnington, was voted to the chair, and there were also present—The Rev. T. Cromer Powell, the Rev. C. J. Bagley, the Rev. Mr. Sawyer (Woolston), Mr. James Green Price, Mr. G. H. Robinson, Mr. H. H. Wood, Mr. L. Robinson, Mr. Charles Langford, of Parliament Street, London, Mr. W. H. Apperley, Mr. J. F. Symonds, Mr. Froehlich, Hereford, Mr. C. G. Bradford, Mr. Trudford, John, Mr. H. Hayward (Bucknort), Mr. Williams, Mansel-Pennant, Mr. C. E. Lane (hon. sec.), Mr. James Martin (Hilshambury), Mr. James (Hilshambury), Mr. James Powell (Hilsham), Mr. Joseph Matthews, Mr. Moxson (Widmore), Mr. Lewis (Grove), Mr. W. J. J. Smith, Mr. Sharkey, Mr. T. Howard (Hilsham), Mr. Thomas Mellist (Mowbold), Mr. James Madocks (Wentworth), Mr. Arthur Jones (Wentworth), Mr. T. Apperley, Mr. Wm. Davies (Wentworth), &c.

The Chairman said the meeting had the privilege of reading the report of the committee of the late meeting, which would be read in full, and he would be glad to take into consideration the views of the meeting, which would be extremely helpful to him. He would be glad to see the views of the meeting, which would be extremely helpful to him. He would be glad to see the views of the meeting, which would be extremely helpful to him.

On Wednesday a highly successful and influential public meeting to promote the railway through that fertile tract of Herefordshire, known as the Golden Valley was convened at the Green Dragon Hotel, Hereford. The Rev. Thomas Powell, of Donnington, was voted to the chair, and there were also present—The Rev. T. Cromer Powell, the Rev. C. J. Bagley, the Rev. Mr. Sawyer (Woolston), Mr. James Green Price, Mr. G. H. Robinson, Mr. H. H. Wood, Mr. L. Robinson, Mr. Charles Langford, of Parliament Street, London, Mr. W. H. Apperley, Mr. J. F. Symonds, Mr. Froehlich, Hereford, Mr. C. G. Bradford, Mr. Trudford, John, Mr. H. Hayward (Bucknort), Mr. Williams, Mansel-Pennant, Mr. C. E. Lane (hon. sec.), Mr. James Martin (Hilshambury), Mr. James (Hilshambury), Mr. James Powell (Hilsham), Mr. Joseph Matthews, Mr. Moxson (Widmore), Mr. Lewis (Grove), Mr. W. J. J. Smith, Mr. Sharkey, Mr. T. Howard (Hilsham), Mr. Thomas Mellist (Mowbold), Mr. James Madocks (Wentworth), Mr. Arthur Jones (Wentworth), Mr. T. Apperley, Mr. Wm. Davies (Wentworth), &c.

The Chairman said the meeting had the privilege of reading the report of the committee of the late meeting, which would be read in full, and he would be glad to take into consideration the views of the meeting, which would be extremely helpful to him. He would be glad to see the views of the meeting, which would be extremely helpful to him. He would be glad to see the views of the meeting, which would be extremely helpful to him.

